

The Society of Postdoctoral Scholars at UCLA,
The UCLA Graduate Division
& UCLA Campus Human Resources

present a 2 hour, double-header info-session on

“Retirement Planning Basics for Postdocs”

Retirement should be one of the most enjoyable stages of life! Getting yourself in financial shape so you can retire without worries is within reach, and it doesn't require a lot of sacrifice. It will only take some planning and discipline. Join us for two relevant info-sessions to learn about basic concepts and more complex strategies for investing for the future.

Session I: UC Retirement Savings Programs

by

Robert Larriva

(Benefits Counselor, Campus Human Resources, UCLA)

Session II: Roadmap to Financial Planning

by

Batoul Amir-Ahmady

(Financial Advisor and current UCLA Postdoc)

If you have never thought about retirement savings, don't understand your current retirement benefits or would like to learn more about UCLA's retirement plans for postdocs, this event is for you!

Wednesday, April 11th, 2007

13-105 CHS (Center for Health Sciences)

4:00 - 6:00 pm

Admission is free. Online pre-registration is *REQUIRED***,

Register at: <https://www.gdnet.ucla.edu/rsvp/?Event=RSFPW2007>

Light refreshments will be served.