Postdoctoral Scholar Orientation - Two Sessions!

December 4th - 3:00 pm - 5:00 pm
December 16th - 3:00 pm - 5:00 pm
1237 Murphy Hall

The orientation provides useful information and resources for both incoming and established postdocs at UCLA. Often, current postdocs and members of SoPS attend to field questions about campus life, childcare, health insurance, and housing issues. If interested, please RSVP at the following website:
<http://www.gdnet.ucla.edu/gss/postdoc/pdorient.htm>
(Note: The November 26th Session was rescheduled for December 4th.)

Still want more news?

UCLA Today is an online portal for faculty and staff that is a good resource for news about the UCLA campus: <http://www.today.ucla.edu>

SoPS Classified Ads

Looking for a job? Selling something? Need to rent a room? The online classified ads section on the SoPS website is the perfect place to both post and search ads for postdocs and administrators alike. The online resource gets better with more users, so all are encouraged to make postings in addition to searching out opportunities. Check back often to get the latest job offerings.

UCLA has named March 9-13 as the first annual UCLA Postdoc Week!

To recognize the hard work and dedication of postdoctoral scholars throughout campus, UCLA Graduate Division and the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs for the Bio-Medical and Life Sciences have planned a week dedicated to UCLA postdocs.

A variety of events designed to recognize and enrich the work and careers of postdocs are planned, including career, award, and social events. Please mark your calendars and reserve time to participate in all of these activities. Watch for more details and RSVP opportunities in the future.
